Purdue University: LEED EBOM Case Study

12 Noon Seminar

- Michael Gulich, AIA, LEED AP
Director of University Sustainability, Purdue University
- John P. O'Brien, PE, LEED AP BD+C
Senior Principal, Heapy Engineering

Purdue University initiated a LEED-EBOM pilot project with graduate students who self-organized and self-managed the documentation process with strategic guidance provided by Heapy Engineering. This seminar will provide an inside look at this integrated approach to the EBOM process.

Insight on Sustainability Integration: Public and Private Perspectives

2 PM Seminar • Panel Discussion

- Ronald P. Heile, PE
University Engineer, University of Cincinnati
- Thomas J. Scheid
Vice President, Cincinnati Financial Corporation
- Jeffrey P. Westhoven
Chief of Facility and Program Services, Ohio Facilities Construction Commission (OFCC)

Panelists will provide their perspectives on what is happening regarding sustainability at their respective organizations. This valuable panel discussion will include insight on "green" initiatives, challenges, future projects—and most importantly—"lessons learned".
